

INDUSTRY ADVOCATE PROFILE

Your name: Liz Bolin

Name of your business/where you work: North Coast Local Land Services

What is your occupation? District Veterinarian

How long have you been with the business? 5 years

Tell us briefly about your background and education? Kyogle High School 1998; Bachelor of Veterinary Science USYD 2005, Post Graduate Diploma in Veterinary Public Health in UNIMELB 2020. What types of activities do you undertake as part of your occupation?
Disease investigations, Animal Health Advisory, Animal Welfare Advisory.

Tell us about the 'lurks and perks' of your job, do you have a car, laptop, ability to travel?
Car, travel the countryside, animals, farmers

What do you enjoy most about what you do and why? Improving animal welfare outcomes - that is why I became a vet!

What are your aspirations for the future? See the animal production industry continue to improve and prosper.

Tell us something you wish to share about the dairy industry? Dairying constitutes probably the hardest working sector in agriculture - the people are passionate about their animals and their livelihoods - this really is a very healthy combination!

Tell us something that you wish to share about the dairy industry?

I admire dairy farmers, it is the most complex of ag industries I know. A truly admirable profession. And I consider myself quite lucky to be involved.

